

A Timeline of the Senior Scout Adventure

Updated: 06 March 2012

The precursor to the Senior Scout Adventure was the Cape Western Division's 12 to 16 December 1969 Experimental Hike for older Scouts.

Convenor: Colin Inglis Cost: R6, assisted by 'Fatty' Rutter and Richard Knight

3rd National Senior Scout Adventure – 1976

Dates: 28/12/1976 – 8/1/1977

Convenor: Colin Inglis

Cost: R40

During 1976 Adventure, a violent storm turned the rivers into raging torrents of water, which became un-crossable. The adventure came to a stand still for a few days till the water subsided and movement was again possible. In spite of this the Scouts met the challenge and enjoyed the adventure of being marooned and living off emergency rations.
