

Aim and Outcomes of Permit Phase Training

Aim: To provide information to new adult leaders on their role in Scouting as well as the basic skills necessary to perform their various roles.

Module 1: Orientation

- Outcome 1: List the outcomes of the Permit Phase Training Programme
- Outcome 2: Explain how to integrate learner material and personal notes
- Outcome 3: Explain course routine and the concept of learning in small groups
- Outcome 4: Identify group members as well as methods for positive interaction

Module 2: What is Scouting?

- Outcome 1: Define the Scout Movement
- Outcome 2: State and explain the Aim and Principles of Scouting
- Outcome 3: Define the Scout Method
- Outcome 4: Discuss the different methods used in the three branches

Module 3: The Organisation of the Scout Movement

- Outcome 1: Relate the origin and growth of the Scout Movement
- Outcome 2: Discuss the operation and makeup of the World Organisation
- Outcome 3: Explain the organisation of the South African Scout Association

Module 4: Promise and Law

- Outcome 1: State and discuss the Scout Promise and Law
- Outcome 2: Explain the adult's commitment to the Promise and Law

Module 5: Roles and Functions of adult leaders

- Outcome 1: Explain the role and function of various positions
- Outcome 2: State the duties applicable to various positions

Module 6: Responsibility, accountability and Safety

- Outcome 1: State and discuss the policies of the Association
- Outcome 2: Explain the accountability of adult leaders regarding policies
- Outcome 3: Discuss the role of adult leaders with regard to safety

Module 7: New adult leaders (Scouters) in the Association

- Outcome 1: State the resources available to adult leaders
- Outcome 2: Define and explain the correct wearing of uniform
- Outcome 3: Demonstrate selected first aid and knotting skills
- Outcome 4: Explain and demonstrate basic ceremonies

Module 8: Final Session

Outcome 1: Explain the adult skills development process

Outcome 2: Formulate personal training goals

As at Sept 10